George Boronow, President

Every time Lynne reads the newsletter she asks "What is wrong with your picture?" I told her to hold on and take a deep breath. Gordy puts together the best Optimist newsletter in the WINUM District. He keeps us all informed on weekly assignments to work the Pro Shop, the tutoring schedule for Jefferson School, upcoming speakers for the weekly assignments to work the Pro Shop, the tutoring schedule for Jefferson School, upcoming speakers for the weekly Club meetings, details on socials, etc. Through the newsletter, Gordy arranged a contest with the Hallie Optimist Club for the most blood donations in 2011. As a result, the Club has the highest number of donations ever. We plan to win the contest and the truffles. He holds our interest in the newsletter with lots of Club pictures. Our members look forward to the weekly delivery to see which wierd photo will show up next. My photo is really not that bad compared to the one he had of Sherm!

Still, Lynne would not relent. I tried a couple of different explanations. The first one was how this is what you look like when you go fishing for three days in the sun and wear a baseball cap to shade only your forehead. I also tried to explain, but did not want to admit, that a lot of time has gone by. Time has taken it's toll. I now look the part of a retired guy. To my dismay, she said all that is true.

However, she still insists that something is wrong.

Hey Gordy, can we try again for another picture?

George
