President's Corner

George Boronow, President

About 70 people were at the "Breakfast with Santa". Santa arrived to the delight of the many kids, young and old. Thanks to Ken Vogel, Santa and the many "helpers" that put us in the Christmas Spirit.

I got a haircut since the last newsletter. Gordy warned me to be careful what I asked for. He took

He took another photo on Sunday which may work for a while. Lynne will be the judge.

I need you to give special attention to the last two Packer games of the season, which fall on Christmas evening and New Years day. We need a few more workers to sign up. We need one or two for Christmas and 4 for New Years. We're getting nervous and need to get these slots filled. Lynne and I worked the last Christmas game and the Packers gave us presents (Lambeau Field mugs, with gold trim). Of course I am trying to influence you, but I don't know what will happen. Our volunteers that work these two games will give up part of their Holiday for the sake of the service projects for the kids. There is not any way we can properly thank you, but we will try.

Go Packers! Go Sunrise Optimists!

George

One A Week Club News

We need your help to keep us in the lead! Please make an appointment today. I just did and will be doing a double on Thursday. It's easy!

Is it safe to give blood?

Donating blood is a safe process. Each donor's blood is collected through a new, sterile needle that is used once and then discarded. Although most people feel fine after donating blood, a small number of people may feel lightheaded or dizzy, have an upset stomach or experience a bruise or pain where the needle was inserted. Extremely rarely, loss of consciousness, nerve damage or artery damage occur.

Last Week's Meeting

West High Octagon Club President Troy Thoong spoke to the Club last week and explained all the things they have been up to. Accompanying Troy was VP Josh Krueger, Advisor Holly Magness and Secretary Tenley Reynolds.

Green Bay Schools Board member Brenda Warren spoke to the Club at last week's meeting. Brenda shared some interesting facts about the Green Bay School District including information on the new International Baccalaureate program that is in effect beginning this year in the West High Quadrant, the new Charter School, John Dewey Academy and the new virtual school that is in the works for next year.

In her spare time Brenda attends Cardinal Stritch College where she is working on her Doctorate degree.
