President's Corner

George Boronow, President

Jack Creswell, our new Optimist International President for 2011-2012, recently sent a link to a YOUTUBE video. If you did not receive the email, here is the link to his video:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XzqRRahxd7g>

I encourage you to take a couple of minutes and check out Jack's message. (copy & paste into your browser)

He presents his leadership vision and explains his call for "100% and then some". He centers it around service to kids and stronger clubs. Stronger clubs are described as those with more resources and expanding member abilities through increased membership.

At the Baltimore convention, I attended a training session lead by Jack on these themes. "100% and then some" is a factor which drives what we are doing. What we do is more special and we give extra care and concern. With club resources and membership we can help the service projects and accomplish things with extra level of service and concern. We volunteer with an attitude that is contagious. Jack challenged us on if "is our attitude worth catching?".

Part of the "then some" theme provides special thanks for all the volunteering you contribute to the success of our service to members and "Bringing out the best in Kids". I also want to pass on special thanks to our club plans for expanded fundraising and building membership. Keeping our club strong is a continuing process. Special thanks to all of you!

George

One-A-Week Club

Message From Dave

Hi All,

I wanted to let you know that we have updated our computer system which is going to change the donation process slightly at "registration". Starting today, you will either swipe your donor card (similar to how a clerk at a store swipes your credit card) or enter your name, address into our computer system. In order for your donors to get credit for your One A Week club, they will have to sign the sheet in the refreshment area. They can still sign this sheet even if they are deferred or don't give a full pint of blood.

Dave Liethen | Donor Recruitment Representative American Red Cross

Dave will be our speaker on November 3. Please try to be there.

The contest goes on! Please don't back off just because we surpassed our goal for the year. Our new goal is to top the Hallie Club and enjoy those two pounds of truffles. Along the way we are providing the gift of life to someone in need.

Last Week's Meeting

Joe Malcore, one of the 4th generation of Malcore Funeral Home and Crematory owners, spoke to our club last week about the many services they offer to the community. Those include preplanning, funeral and cremation services for people of all faiths. They even operate a separate pet crematory.

Malcore is one of our Club Sponsors and Sara Hyde from Malcore is a member of our club.

Joe brought his daughter Neela with him and she enjoyed her breakfast while listening to her Dad. Below Neela draws the attendance award winner.

This Week's Speaker

Former Packers President and COO, John Jones, will speak to the Club on Thursday.

John will tell us his story, and what a story it is. Do not miss this meeting!
